The Director of Hospitality - Secret Gtash

Let me introduce myself – My name is Ryan Ringo, and I have been in the hotel trade since the 26th August 1999. Arriving in England I had no knowledge of wine, other than a Catembe, from my varsity days. The first hotel I worked at, my General Manager took me under his "wine wing", where my love for wine began. Through the years, I have always looked hard to find the wines that stand out, with the best possible representation of the cultivar. We grew up in an era where it was appropriate to drink White wine with White meat, and Red with Red meat, however I am in the firm opinion that you should enjoy which ever is your preference. I would also like to add that there are some refined choices on this, if you are going to enjoy something spice, often a sweeter of off dry wine will pair well with this, and if there is a wholesome casserole, then a heavier Red would be preferred.

Below are a few wines that I have managed to find, that express themselves in a way that I personally have most enjoyed:

Reds

Anura Pinotage 2018 R249.00

An elegant and aromatic nose, complimented by subtle, juicy fruit. A velvety palate with prominent notes of black and red berries, featuring spicy undertones of cinnamon. This wine shows great balance between oak and fruit flavour with a good tannin structure finish.

This wine shows upfront flavours of mulberry, blackcurrant and blackberry complemented by delicate notes of subtle pepper and anise. The midpalate is balanced with concentrated fruit flavours that lead to a smooth, dense tannin finish.

Brampton Roxton Red R389.50

The Petit Verdot contributes to the muscular structure of the wine while the Shiraz adds a distinctive flavour to the mid-palate. The Malbec adds bright berry-fruit. This wine displays delicious dark black cherries with dark chocolate and spice on the mid-palate and a lingering finish.

Anura Reserve Malbec 2019 R450.00

Sweet plums, mulberry and marzipan aromas with a rich mouth feel and a long, smooth finish underlined by liquorice spice and dried peach tones

Christina Cabernet Sauv R599.50

Delicious concentration of ripe plum, blackcurrant and blackberry fruit flavours are accompanied by gentle vanilla spice, supple tannins and a long finish. Elegant and beautifully weighted, will age for a further decade.

Meerlust Red 2019 R599.50

Youthful ruby red colour, with a garnet red hue. Supple red and black fruit, with warm spice on the nose with some supporting oak notes. Still young and intense, the palate is full bodied, structured but packed with fresh red fruit and soft rounded tannins.

Wildeckrans Barrel Select Reserve Cabernet Franc R599.50

The nose is full with rich red fruit and a slight fynbos note. Very smooth, surprisingly gentle tannins, underpinned with blackcurrant, and good spicy depth.
